HADITH on Marriage

"Those believers who marry, protect half of their religion from danger."

"Two Rak'as of a married person is better than seventy Rak'as of an unmarried one."

"Whoever marries, protects half of his religion, then for the remaining half he must only fear God."

"A sleeping married man is better than a fasting unmarried man."

"Do not marry a woman for the following four reasons: Wealth, beauty, ancestry and lust. It is obligatory upon you to marry a woman on account of her religion."
